

As you are by Nayyirah Waheed

'as you are' says the Universe.

'after...' you answer.

'as you are.' says the Universe.

'before...' you answer.

'as you are.' says the Universe.

'when...' you answer.

'as you are.' says the Universe.

'how...' you answer

'as you are.' says the Universe.

'why...' you answer.

'because you are happening right now, right now, right at this moment and your happening is beautiful. The thing that both keeps me alive and brings me to my knees. You don't even know how breathtaking you are.

'as you are.' says the Universe through tears.

'as you are... you are the prayer' says the Universe

Inspired by Nayyirah Waheed's poem we can add...

'to be happy' you answer

'as you are' says the Universe

'Love myself...' you answer

'as you are' says the Universe

"love others..."

'as they are' says the Universe

'for we are!' and the Universe smiled!
